A path to deeper living

By varshu

What is devotion?

So, what is really?

Devotion gives us power to connect to God. it is complete love and surrender towards God. Such dedication is a spiritual path to attain liberation (moksha). also it is provides us so much pleasure in life. We are proud that we are devotees. Only a devotee can dance in their bad situation. It means they know that all our karma gives us problems, troubles, and difficulties. So in that situation they do not panic.

The power of devotion?

The power of devotion means to have faith, surrender, and trust in God. It gives us inner power, and inner power gives us peace because you know that now all the time people are becoming busy and their lives are becoming conflicted, so they have all things, and also they can buy anything, but they can’t buy peace. Peace only comes to us through devotion.

why it is matter in daily life?

1) give life direction

Devotion helps you stay with what truly matters to you. Devotion keeps us away from evil things.

ex:- A devotee person knows that in their bad situation what can be best for her.

2) Build Relationships

Devotion in a relationship shows commitment and care, creating emotional security and trust.

Ex:- Being emotionally present in your relationships, like friendships and love relationships, becomes the bond over time.

3) builds discipline and consistency

Presently, humans are becoming lazy, and they are not being disciplined, but devotion gives us the power to understand how to behave with another one and how to maintain focus level and consistency.

4) the challenge of devotion

In a devotee’s life, it is not easy like it is for a normal human. The challenging can be one that tests the strength of our faith, patience, and love for the divine. Many people think that devotion means only worship and praying to God and that’s it, but no, it is a deeper path to know your soul journey and your life conflicts. Devotion helps us know who we are and why we need devotion.

Final thoughts: of God

God, only God can give us all things; no one else can. But sometimes we can’t understand their plans. He gives us more things, like he gives us eyes, ears, a nose, and a body. In fact, what we have are great things; all things are gifted by God.

“miracle of prayer”

By varshu

This time we are discussing, “What can the power of prayer do?”

Praying to God is important for many people because it brings peace, purpose, and connection to something greater than themselves. Here are some key reasons why prayer matters:

1) Spiritual connection—prayer helps you to connect to God and their presence; it gives us power to feel close to God.

2) Inner peace—when you pray, then you see you are so far in stress and laziness, you fear, and all problems make you mentally balanced.

3) Gratitude and humility—prayer reminds us why we are human and reminds us to be thankful for what we have.

4) Guidance and strength—in difficult times prayer gives us what is good direction, and it gives us strength to fight our problem.

5) Hope and positivity- regular prayer strengthens hope; it gives us positivity, which makes us problem solvers.

Know this time we discuss why we should pray to God.

But this time we will meet a story that makes us more worthy. What is the role of prayer in our life?

In Rampur a village, there lived a good family; in their family lived Rekha’s mother, father, little brother, grandmother, and Rekha.

Their family are all good devotees; they always have faith in God, but one day God thinks, “I will test their family; let’s see if they are such devotees or not.”

One day Rekha’s family thinks we are going on a pilgrimage, and we spend 1 week. For this statement, Rekha’s father, brother, and grandmother are excited to go on the pilgrimage.

That day they decide to go there, but there is an accident in their bus. It loses balance, and all are injured, but Rekha is in the accident. Because of this accident, she has a big conflict or problems.

Rekha can’t listen and speak.

Rekha’s father believes that their daughter will be fine. But when he heard this thing that her daughter can’t listen and speak, he felt faith in God.

but their wife and his mother believe God does best, but we understand ahead.

The doctor said, “Sorry, but Rekha is ahead in life; she can’t speak and listen.” But Rekha’s mother said, “The doctor that I give you promises my daughter will soon recover. My god always listens to my prayers. I believe in God; in 2 years she will recover.” The doctor said yes, if your faith tells you this thing, then it is possible, but my experience tells me something—it’s hard. Thank you.

Now Rekha’s mother takes a decision and gives us a show of faith in the good that my god makes all right.

We can’t believe that her faith does more to help Rekha recover from this problem. She takes her daughter daily to go gathering in spiritual song and used to narrate stories.

One day she again made a plan to go on that pilgrimage, but her husband, being afraid that someone could be injured, said, “I am not giving you permission to go on the pilgrimage.”

She is going to convince her husband, and she is going on that pilgrimage again. Before going, she will pray to God, “Please show us, God, your power and your kindness. Please make my child recover.”

Then again, her bus felt her balance, but this time Rekha thought, “God, please help. If now is the time anyone gets injured, then my faith will be felt down, and then next time I will never come here.”

suddenly their bus going towards ditch suddenly rekha yell god .

This thing listens to their family being shocked, and the bus suddenly stops.

So, this is the power of prayer; prayer always protects our faith.

God will come

By varshu /

A message of faith and hope

In moments of darkness, when life feels heavy and uncertain, one truth continues to shine through all doubt—God will come.

God's arrival isn't always with thunder or miracles—sometimes, he comes softly. Through the kindness of a stranger. He speaks through signs, moments, and whispers to remind us that he never left.

Now by this story we can understand how God comes softly in our bad situation.

The story starts with Ramnath, who is the kind of our nature; he satisfied all our things, and he never complained to God.

His law is that he always goes to the temple to offer a garland to God. He always prays to God. "I believe one day you will come to my home and meet me," he was saying emotionally, and at that time he was crying because he had no one, only God.

Because as a child he lived with our stepmother, who always punished Ramnath. One day her stepmother burned his hand. He never complained to God, and he did not complain to our father, but one day when her mother told her that always doing worship is not good. That time Ramnath had God in his hands. Ramnath's mother said, "Give me what's in your hand," and then he gave it to his mother with fear. Then her mother took the god idol and threw it outside.

This action pushed him entirely away, and then Ramnath took the decision to go away from them, and till then, he lived alone

In 56 years he had gone to the temple to offer a garland to the god. But today when his age became 57, his kidney failed. The doctor said this, so he can't go to the temple. All the villagers said, "Hey Ramnath, your health is not good. Why are you trying to go? And also, your god has never come in your life. Why are you waiting for God? It’s useless.” But Ramnath believed, “One day my lord, my everything, will come to my house.”

For a few days he hadn’t eaten anything; that’s why he can’t get himself to the temple. All villagers make fun of him.

After God sees all this, he decides now the time has come to meet our devotee.

God becomes emotional when he sees their devotee in a terrible situation. Ramnath only cries, not for eating, only for how I go to the temple.

Then finally God will come to her house. When God comes to her home, his house begins to shine. Then one neighbor sees Ramnath's window; it's God. Then the neighbor's eyes will be wide open.

Then he realized if we are waiting for God, then God is also waiting to see if we truly love him or not. God also sees if my devotee has hope and faith for me here or not. spiritually made us greater spiritually made us greater

A spiritual journey can bring deep and lasting benefits to your life—not only emotionally. but also in how you view the world and connect with others. Here are some key benefits.

"Now we will read a story; by its conclusion we can understand how a spiritual journey made us greater."

There was a village named Rampur. In this Rampur lived a man and his father; they belonged to a poor family. That's why the man was doing the theft.

On a daily basis the man was doing theft. Then one day his father, always being diseased, said, "Son, please come and listen to me."

Then his father said, "Listen, when you are doing that theft, remember 2 things: if somebody catches you for doing theft, then don't tell him I do theft, and second, don't go to the temple." son replied ok dad.

One day he stole something, and then the king's soldiers chased the thief, and then he went to spiritual preaching. As his father said, "Don't go to the temple or don't join spiritual gatherings," but to protect himself from soldiers, he went to the temple. In the temple, he went to spiritual preaching. In the temple, the guru told him one thing: that God has no shadow.

After a lot of effort, the soldier caught the man, and then the soldier appeared to the thief in front of the king. The king said, "Hey man, tell me, are you a thief? Don't lie. If you are lying, then I will punish you.

The man said, “No, king, I didn’t do the theft.” Then the king thought he wouldn’t be accepted like this. Then the king said, “Our soldier, put him in jail.” Then King said to the soldier, “Listen, like this, he never accepted that he was doing it.” Then I had an idea: we will appear as a goddess in front of her, and then, by seeing the disguised goddess, she can accept our mistake of seeing the goddess, and then we can punish her.

It happened just like that: a disguised goddess came in front of the thief, and then he greeted the goddess, who is a fake goddess. She said, “Now, son, tell me, are you doing theft?” Then suddenly he saw the goddess’s shadow, which had appeared.

Then he thinks, “I have remembered in the temple one guru said that God has no shadow.” Now he understands this fake goddess would be coming by the king—know my mistake.

He showed his cleverness and told the goddess, “Do you know? I am not a thief.” Then, by saying this thing, the king listened in back; he thought he was no thief. Then he decides to live it. So, we can see how he became safe by listening to one word of spiritual. Think if we listen more in life, our life can be better.

GOD PLAN

By varshu / October 23, 2025

Life often takes us through paths we never expected, full of challenges, surprises, and lessons. In those moments when things don't go as we planned, it's easy to feel lost or disappointed. But deep within, we must remember a simple truth: God's arrangement is always great.

This time we bring for you a special story that will make us, God's plan has always been right.

In this story there is one girl who is devotional and who always worships the god. The girl's name is Sona. She belongs to a poor family. but her nature is very polite to everyone.

Somehow he completed his studies, then she went to find a job; finally she got it. She has all quality for this job, but her face color is a problem in any situation, but her voice was excellent. She was poor; that's why she never gave the audition to become a singer.

So, as we know, somehow she got a job, but this job was also not permanent for Sona; there was also discrimination against her in their company. Somehow she did well at work for some months, but after some months later, one fair girl came to find a job in this company, and then the company manager did a bad thing for Sona and gave him her job.

She was so excited to get this job, as we know it is very hard for her to find a job. Till she got this job, she always prayed to God that He please protect her job and also please care for her grandmother, but tomorrow misfortune will strike. One day her manager will tell Sona,

“Please resign from this job,” but when she asks, “Why, sir? Am I doing something wrong?” If I am doing wrong, please tell me, but the manager said, “No, you do your best work, but now I don’t want you. Please resign and go.”

When she came to her house, her grandmother was in very bad condition, so she went fast and admitted her grandmother. Then the doctor said, “We will start the operation, but more money was spent on you.” She is in very bad condition, so when you have much money, then we will start your grandmother’s operation.” She said in a low voice, “Yes, I have. Please do the operation fast, doctor.” She always believes in God’s plan, but this situation makes her feel down.

When she came to her house, her grandmother was in very bad condition, so she went fast and admitted her grandmother. Then the doctor said, “We will start the operation, but more money was spent on you.” She is in very bad condition, so when you have much money, then we will start your grandmother’s operation.” She said in a low voice, “Yes, I have. Please do the operation fast, doctor.” She always believes in God’s plan, but this situation makes her feel down.

When she left the hospital, she told God, “God, I always believe in you in my bad situation, but why are you doing all this?” I think you do not want to see me happy; that’s why you create all these problems with me.

But suddenly she bumped into one boy; that boy was Sona’s colleague and friend. His name was Roshan. When Roshan saw Sona with a bad face, he said, “Hey Sona, I am Roshan. Do you remember me, or have you forgotten me?” Then Sona saw Roshan and said, “Oh wow, how are you, and where are you going?” But he interrupted this question, and then he said, “Hey Sona, are you looking sad? What’s wrong with you? Are you fine or not?” Then Sona told all the things that happened with her. Then Sona said, “Hey Roshan, now what are you doing?” Then he said, “I am a good film director. Do you want to join with me? By the way, your singing is excellent, so join with me, and you also need a job, so join me.”

Sona tells Roshan. Hey Roshan, I can join with you, but now I need a job that can give me much money because I need my grandmother’s operation. Then Roshan said, “Don’t worry, now I gave you money, and after you join with me when your grandmother becomes fine, that’s ok.” Then Sona gave a good smile. After her grandmother recovered, she became a famous singer, and each one watched her singing show.

Sona realized that I am wrong. Thank you, thank you very much, God. Sometimes we can’t understand your plan, God, in our bad situation, but your plan is always right for us.

So, when life feels uncertain, remind yourself God’s timing is never late, his ways are never wrong, and his plan is always great. Trust him completely, and you will see that everything happens for a reason—a reason greater than we can imagine.
